

INSTRUCTION FOR AUTHORS

Research Article Requirements

Purpose: Present original research findings based on a specific hypothesis or research question.

Content:

1. Abstract: Summary of research, methodology, and findings.
2. Introduction: Presentation of the research question and its significance.
3. Methods: Detailed description of research design, sample, methodology, and data collection.
4. Research Results: Objective presentation of findings.
5. Discussion: Interpretation and significance of results.
6. Conclusion: Summary of findings and implications.
7. References: List of sources and literature referenced or cited during research.

Note: Authors can title these sections according to their article's topic. Original data specifically collected for this research is required.

Writing Style: Structured and formal, emphasizing clarity, objectivity, and precision.

Validation: Review by editors and experts to ensure originality, significance, and methodological accuracy.

Purpose: Contribute new empirical findings in the field. It can be a smaller version of your academic article.

Analysis Article Requirements

Purpose: Analyze existing information, events, issues, or research and present a new perspective or viewpoint.

Content:

1. Introduction: Introduce the subject or issue under analysis.
2. Analysis (Body of the Article): Main section where existing information is analyzed, interpreted, and commented upon.

3. Conclusion: Summary of presented viewpoints or arguments.

4. References: List of sources and literature referenced or cited during the analysis.

Note: Authors can title these sections according to their article's topic. Use existing information or literature; original data collection isn't necessary. Reliable sources should support the analysis.

Writing Style: Clarity and logical argumentation are prioritized; style can vary.

Validation: Review by an editor or fact-checking, but a rigorous expert review process as in research articles is not necessary.

Purpose: Present a specific perspective, interpretation, or critique on existing topics or current issues.

Opinion Article

Purpose:

- Explain the significance of your chosen topic to establish context for readers.
- Present a specific perspective, interpretation, or critique on the topic.

Content:

1. Introduction: Establish the significance of the chosen topic.
2. Body: Present your perspective while acknowledging different viewpoints briefly.
3. Conclusion: Summarize your perspective on the topic.
4. References: Include references used in forming your opinion.

Note: Sections can be titled based on the article's topic. Aim for a balanced viewpoint.

Infographics Article Requirements

Purpose: Create an informative visual representation to convey complex information or data succinctly and engagingly.

Content:

1. Introduction: Contextualize the topic and explain the need for an infographic to simplify or clarify information.

2. Data Collection: Gather accurate and reliable data pertinent to the infographic's subject matter.
3. Design Concept: Outline the visual design approach, considering layout, colors, fonts, and visual elements.
4. Information Organization: Structure the content logically for easy comprehension, ensuring a clear flow of information.
5. Visual Representation: Use graphics, charts, icons, or illustrations to visually represent data and concepts effectively.
6. Textual Content: Provide concise and engaging text to complement visuals, emphasizing key points or insights.
7. Conclusion: Summarize the infographic's main takeaway or message.
8. References: Cite sources for data, statistics, or any information included in the infographic.

Note: Sections can be adapted based on the infographic's specific focus. Ensure accuracy, clarity, and visual appeal in conveying information.

Design Style: Ensure the design is visually appealing, clear, and aligns with the intended audience's preferences and understanding.

Validation: Review by graphic design experts or subject matter specialists to ensure accuracy and effectiveness in conveying information.

Purpose: Present complex information in a visually engaging manner to enhance understanding and retention.

Final Reminders:

- Ensure adherence to spelling and grammar rules.
- Format the article in a readable font, preferably Times New Roman, size 12, with double spacing.
- The article should be original and not published elsewhere.